Hello –

Below is a new link to the Environmental Assessment Draft (EA), originally sent 8/14/2018. The link sent for Katy would have expired today, I think, so your test wouldn't have 'passed' anyway. You should be able to forward this or 'copy hyperlink' and include into an email to the EPA reviewer.

Exemption (4)

Please reply with confirmation that this was successfully transmitted – and if not, we'll go to 'Plan B'...

Thank you,
Sue.

Hi Sue – EPA asked me to forward them an active link to the EA. The contact person was out of country for most of the comment period. I forwarded them the links below and she said both open up the BA. Do you have a link that will open up the EA? I can't test here because our firewall won't give me access.

Thanks,
Shelly
