Conditions of Entry Notice Published

The Coast Guard announced today via a Federal Register publication of a notice that conditions of entry have been implemented for vessels arriving from ports in the Federal Republic of Nigeria with the exceptions the ports listed in the Federal Register: docket number USCG-2014-0067.

The imposition of conditions of entry on vessels arriving from Nigeria is not a trade sanction and does not ban Nigerian ships from entering US ports. However, ships are required to take certain additional security-related measures while at non-exempt Nigerian port facilities. This action is being taken because the Coast Guard has determined that ports in the Federal Republic of Nigeria are no longer maintaining effective anti-terrorism measures with certain exceptions.

The notice and related materials may be reviewed at <http://www.regulations.gov> docket number: USCG-2014-0067 or by going to <http://homeport.uscg.mil>, clicking the “Maritime Security” and then “International Port Security Program” tabs, and following the link.
