

Examinations Working Group – Legal Disclosure

In accordance with the terms of the 2015 Coast Guard Authorization Act (CGAA), the Federal Advisory Committee Act (5 U.S.C. App) shall not apply to this working group. Members may be subject to an ethics review to ensure no conflict of interest exists, and will be required to sign a nondisclosure agreement. Members selected for the working group will be appointed and serve as a Special Government Employee as defined in section 202(a) of Title 18, United States Code. After selection, a candidate for appointment as a Special Government Employee will be required to complete a Confidential Financial Disclosure Report (DHS 11000-60GE Form 450). The Coast Guard may not release the reports or the information in them to the public except under an order issued by a Federal court or as otherwise provided under the Privacy Act (5 U.S.C. 552a). Only the Designated Coast Guard Ethics Official or their designee may release a Confidential Financial Disclosure Report. Applicants can obtain this form by visiting the website of the Office of Government Ethics.

The Department of Homeland Security does not discriminate in selection of working group members on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, political affiliation, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital status, disability and genetic information, age, membership in an employee organization, or any other non-merit factor. The Department of Homeland Security strives to achieve a widely diverse candidate pool for all of its recruitment actions.
